Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference character(s) mentioned in the description: J. Corrected drawing sheets are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: Lines 4-22 of page 3 of the specification are a copy of claim 1. Claim language should not be used in the disclosure to describe the invention.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

3. The claims are objected to because they include reference characters, which are not enclosed within parentheses.

Art Unit: 3617

Reference characters corresponding to elements recited in the detailed description of the drawings and used in conjunction with the recitation of the same element or group of elements in the claims should be enclosed within parentheses so as to avoid confusion with other numbers or characters which may appear in the claims. See MPEP § 608.01(m).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 1 is indefinite due to the fact that in lines 5 and 6 of the claim, it is unclear what element of the invention is being referred to by the term "thereof". It is unclear whether the term "thereof" is referring to the peak position of the primary component of the RRO or the peak position of the wheel rim in line 5; and it is unclear if the term "thereof" is referring to an unbalance level, a heavy point, or the wheel rim in line 6.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claim 1 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Art Unit: 3617

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The references are considered to show methods for balancing a wheel rim using vector analysis of weight factors of the rim. For example Watanabe et al shows a balancing method of the type described above.
